Overall, the press conference was a major success attended by more than 50 media, both local and international. Watch out for more famous names participating in the tournament in August!

Serving an Ace

Tennis fans of Angelique Widjaja can expect an exciting tournament this year as Wismilak International[®] committee granted her a wild card facility. Although not completely recovered from her knee injury, Angie has confirmed that she will prepare for playing in the tournament. Angie had entered Wismilak International[®] when it was staged for the first time at the Grand Hyatt, Bali. She was given a wild card by the organisers and she rewarded their faith in her by beating South Africa's Joannette Kruger in the final. Angie together with Maria Vento-Kabchi from Venezuela won the doubles match in 2003 Wismilak International[®] tournament. Aside from physical preparation for Wismilak International[®], Angie spends much of her time swimming and leisuring at home.
